Plaintiff, Richard Cronin, by his attorney, Michael G. Dowd, complaining of Defendants, hereby alleges the following:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This action is timely commenced pursuant to the New York State Child Victims Act, dated February 14, 2019, and CPLR § 214-g.
2. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to CPLR § 301 as Defendants' principal place of business is in New York and because much of the unlawful conduct complained of herein occurred in New York.
3. Venue is proper pursuant to CPLR § 503 because New York County is the principal place of business of Defendants.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

NEGLIGENT SUPERVISION

4. The Plaintiff, Richard Cronin (hereinafter "Plaintiff") was born on July 12, 1937. He is a resident of the State of Washington.
5. Plaintiff was a student at Defendant STEPINAC HIGH SCHOOL (hereinafter "STEPINAC"), which is a Roman Catholic high school within the Defendant ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF NEW YORK. STEPINAC is located in White Plains, New York, which is in Westchester County.
6. Plaintiff was baptized, confirmed, attended mass, and received his sacraments through the Roman Catholic Church.
7. Upon information and belief, at all times mentioned herein, the ROMAN CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF NEW YORK (hereinafter "ARCHDIOCESE") was and is a not-for-profit religious corporation organized and existing around and under by virtue of the laws of the State of New York. Its principal headquarters are located in New York, New York, which is in New York County.
8. Upon information and belief, Timothy Cardinal Dolan (hereinafter "Dolan") is currently the Roman Catholic Archbishop of the ARCHDIOCESE.
9. Upon information and belief, the Archbishop is the Chief Executive Officer of all parishes and parish schools in the ARCHDIOCESE and as part of said responsibilities assigned the priests to work in the parishes and schools.
10. Upon information and belief, all of Dolan's predecessor(s) were the Chief Executive Officers of all parishes and parish schools in the ARCHDIOCESE and as part of said responsibilities assigned the priests to work in the parishes and schools, including Marion Scheutz (hereinafter "Scheutz"). This includes those Archbishops who assigned Scheutz to his parish and school positions.

11. Upon information and belief, at all times mentioned herein, Dolan and the above-referenced predecessor Archbishops in the Office of the Archbishop, along with Defendant ARCHDIOCESE, created the policies and procedures to be followed by priests within the ARCHDIOCESE. The Office of the Archbishop and Defendant ARCHDIOCESE were responsible for investigating complaints against its parish clergy. In this capacity, the Office of the Archbishop either directly or through Diocesan officials appointed by them, established policies and procedures by which complaints of sexual abuse against parish clergy, priests, and staff were to be dealt with and investigated by the ARCHDIOCESE.
12. Upon information and belief, at all times mentioned herein, the Office of the Archbishop was also responsible for removing and/or suspending parish clergy and priests from their duties.
13. Upon information and belief, at all times relevant, the Office of the Archbishop and Defendant ARCHDIOCESE were in charge of supervising all Catholic schools within its geographical boundaries, including STEPINAC and developed and approved the curriculum, both religious and secular, for all of these schools.
14. Upon information and belief, at all times mentioned herein, the Office of the Archbishop and Defendant ARCHDIOCESE also appointed the school principals and controlled the hiring and training of the teachers in its schools.

15. Upon information and belief, at all times mentioned herein, Scheutz was a priest and teacher at Defendant STEPINAC having been assigned and otherwise authorized to work there by the Office of the Archbishop.
16. Scheutz's abuse of Plaintiff occurred in or around 1954. Scheutz pushed or shoved Plaintiff against a table and forcefully held him there with his hands pushing heavily on Plaintiff's shoulders, fully pressed his body into Plaintiff and proceeded to rub and otherwise move and grind his entire body, including his erect penis against Plaintiff until he ejaculated. The abuse occurred on one occasion in Defendant STEPINAC's Photography Club's dark room well after regular school hours.
17. Upon information and belief, at all times mentioned herein, Defendant ARCHDIOCESE knew or should have known that children such as Plaintiff were present in various parts of the school for a variety of purposes, including counseling and work.
18. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff was taught and otherwise informed by Defendants ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC by word and deed that he should obey, trust, and respect the ARCHDIOCESE, STEPINAC and Scheutz.
19. Upon information and belief, since at least 1950 through present, Defendants ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC knew the risk of sexual abuse of minor students by priests and other staff working in the ARCHDIOCESE.
20. Upon information and belief, at all times mentioned herein, Defendants ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC knew that minors sexually abused in the Catholic Church would suffer psychological and emotional injuries, as well as other damages.

21. Upon information and belief, at all times mentioned herein, Defendant ARCHDIOCESE aided and abetted the concealment of criminal conduct by failing and refusing to report allegations of child sexual abuse to appropriate New York civil authorities.
22. Upon information and belief, at the time of the acts alleged herein, Scheutz was an employee of, and acting as an agent of Defendants ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC.
23. Upon information and belief, Defendants ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC had a duty to protect Plaintiff as a minor student from Scheutz's criminal sexual acts.
24. Upon information and belief, Defendants ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC failed to adequately and completely supervise Scheutz, and as a result of this failure and negligence, proximately caused Plaintiff to be sexually abused by Scheutz.
25. The aforementioned occurrences of sexual abuse were caused by the negligence, carelessness, recklessness, and the willful, wanton, reckless and grossly negligent conduct of Defendants ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC and their agents, servants, and/or employees, in failing to properly and adequately supervise the conduct of Scheutz as it related to Plaintiff.
26. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained physical and psychological injuries, including but not limited to, severe emotional distress, confusion, humiliation, fright, anxiety, a severe shock to his nervous system, and has been caused to suffer physical pain and mental anguish, emotional and psychological damages as a result thereof, and, upon information and belief, some or all of these injuries are of a permanent and lasting nature, and as a result Plaintiff has become and will continue to be obligated to expend sums of money for medical expenses for treatment of said maladies.

27. That by reason of the foregoing, Defendants ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC are also liable to Plaintiff for punitive and exemplary damages.
28. It is hereby alleged pursuant to CPLR 1603 that the foregoing cause of action is exempt from the operation of CPLR 1601 by reason of one or more of the exemptions provided in CPLR 1602, including but not limited to, CPLR 1602(7) and 1602(11).
29. That the amount of damages sought exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts, which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION:

NEGLIGENT FAILURE TO WARN

30. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs of this Complaint, with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.
31. Upon information and belief, prior to and at all times herein mentioned, Defendants ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC and their agents, servants, and employees, knew or should have known that Scheutz violated ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC's relevant rules, regulations and protocols prohibiting priests like Scheutz from sexually abusing and otherwise harming minor students, including Plaintiff.

32. The Defendants ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC and their agents, servants, and employees were negligent, careless and reckless and acted willfully, wantonly and were grossly negligent in failing to warn Plaintiff that the failure of Scheutz to abide by ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC's rules, regulations and protocols regarding prohibitions on employees being alone with minor students put Plaintiff at risk for being sexually abused by Scheutz.
33. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained physical and psychological injuries, including but not limited to, severe emotional distress, confusion, humiliation, fright, anxiety, a severe shock to his nervous system, and has been caused to suffer physical pain and mental anguish, emotional and psychological damages as a result thereof, and, upon information and belief, some or all of these injuries are of a permanent and lasting nature, and as a result Plaintiff has become and will continue to be obligated to expend sums of money for medical expenses for treatment of said maladies.
34. That by reason of the foregoing, Defendants ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC are also liable to Plaintiff for punitive and exemplary damages.
35. It is hereby alleged pursuant to CPLR 1603 that the foregoing cause of action is exempt from the operation of CPLR 1601 by reason of one or more of the exemptions provided in CPLR 1602, including but not limited to, CPLR 1602(7) and 1602(11).
36. That the amount of damages sought exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts, which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION:

NEGLIGENT FAILURE TO PROVIDE A SAFE AND SECURE ENVIRONMENT

37. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs of this Complaint, with the same force and effect as if fully set forth at length herein.
38. The Defendants ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC assumed a duty to protect the safety and welfare of Plaintiff as more fully set forth above, when Plaintiff participated as a minor student in STEPINAC related activities such as clubs and extracurricular activities. This duty imposed upon said Defendants, the duty to provide a reasonably safe and secure environment for Plaintiff while he was participating in school programs.
39. When Plaintiff was in said Defendants' care, said Defendants failed to exercise the degree of care that a reasonably prudent parent would have exercised under similar circumstances.
40. Defendants ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC and their agents and employees were negligent, careless and reckless and acted willfully, wantonly and were grossly negligent in failing to provide a safe and secure environment for Plaintiff while he participated as a minor in school programs and as such was sexually abused by Scheutz.
41. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained physical and psychological injuries, including but not limited to, severe emotional distress, confusion, humiliation, fright, anxiety, a severe shock to his nervous system, and has been caused to suffer physical pain and mental anguish, emotional and psychological damages as a result thereof, and, upon information and belief, some or all of these injuries are of a permanent and lasting nature, and as a result Plaintiff has become and will continue to be obligated to expend sums of money for medical expenses for treatment of said maladies.

42. That by reason of the foregoing, Defendants ARCHDIOCESE and STEPINAC are also liable to Plaintiff for punitive and exemplary damages.
43. It is hereby alleged pursuant to CPLR 1603 that the foregoing cause of action is exempt from the operation of CPLR 1601 by reason of one or more of the exemptions provided in CPLR 1602, including but not limited to, CPLR 1602(7) and 1602(11).
44. That the amount of damages sought exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts, which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants, together with compensatory and punitive damages, and the interest, costs and disbursements pursuant to the causes of action herein.

VERIFICATION BY ATTORNEY

MICHAEL G. DOWD, an attorney being duly admitted before the courts of the State of New York, hereby affirms the following under penalties of perjury:

That he is an attorney for the Plaintiff in the above-entitled action with offices located at 600 Third Ave, New York, New York; that he has read the foregoing VERIFIED COMPLAINT and knows the contents thereof; that the same is true to his knowledge, except as to the matters stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and that as to those matters he believes them to be true.

That the reason why this verification is made by deponent instead of Plaintiff is because Plaintiff is not within the County of New York where deponent has his office. Deponent further says that the grounds of his belief as to all matters in the VERIFIED COMPLAINT not stated to be upon his knowledge are based upon conversations with the Plaintiff and other writings relevant to this action.
